

Excuses, Excuses, Excuses

Luke 14:16-24

Dr. Bill Hurt

September 30, 2007

I. Sometimes we play the excuse game.

1. We point the _____ It is someone _____.
2. We use excuses as a _____.
3. We use excuses as a game of _____.
4. There is the game of feeling _____.

II. What happens when we begin to make excuses?

1. We miss the _____ of being part of the _____.
2. We begin to settle for _____.

3. We miss the opportunity for _____.

III. What will get us away from making excuses?

1. Excuses are _____.
2. There is no one _____.
3. Express thanksgiving for _____.
4. Realize the _____ has given _____.
5. Ultimately we are not dependent upon our own _____.