

It is Worth the Cost

Proverbs 2:1-8
Matthew 13:44-46
Dr. Bill Hurt
August 19, 2007

- I. The Kingdom of God is worth whatever the _____ or _____ might be.
- A. Those of us who are a part of the Kingdom of God have a sense of _____ that comes from His presence.
- B. God did not come into our lives to be a _____.
- II. The people were willing to sell everything because the treasure had _____.
- A. Both parables attest to the _____ of the Kingdom.
- B. Jesus Christ comes and offers us _____.

- III. The Kingdom of God wants to come into your life, but we must be _____.
- A. It is the greatest treasure of all, but many _____.
- B. Some people receive or discover God's grace by _____.
- C. Some people are like the Apostle Paul, who was _____.
- IV. Finding the treasure _____ these men to a _____.
- V. These men were called to make a _____.
- A. Too often we only _____ in the treasure.
- B. The paradoxical message about the Gospel is the grace of God is free, but it is the most _____ you and I ever make.