

If you are looking for a cover school past the date of our enrollment you may want to consider contacting a cover school below:

The Well Academy: <https://wellacademy.school> (256-796-8533)
Hope Christian Academy: hopechristacad.org

Information about many other covers can be accessed at:
www.leapingfromthebox.com (Website also has a lot of other helpful information)

Resources for homeschool materials:

1. First Baptist Fine Arts Ministry - www.schoolofflinearts.org (music, art, dance, drama)
2. Cook Museum of Natural Science - www.cookmuseum.org
3. Facebook groups that offer local activities: Rocket City Homeschooling Info, Libertas Classical Community
4. Christian Home Education Fellowship (CHEF) of Alabama exists to promote and encourage Christian home education for the glory of God. Whether you are considering homeschooling, just beginning your homeschooling journey, or are a veteran homeschooling parent, our goal is to encourage, inspire, and equip you. Homeschool. chefofalabama.org
5. <http://www.hiphomeschoolmoms.com>
6. www.homeschoolbuyersco-op.org (membership is free)
7. Other sources for curriculum are Christianbook.com, timberdoodle.com, eBay, Amazon, Thriftbooks.com (discount books)
8. Rainbow Resources – rainbowresource.com
9. Central Baptist Church library
10. CONNECT is a group with local activities. To be invited to the group email connectdecaturn@gmail.com
11. Librivox.org: free public domain audio books
12. Worldwatch.news: current events from a Christian world view, subscription required
13. Answers in Genesis: many resources from a Christian worldview
14. Guiltfreehomeschooling.org
15. Amblesideonline.org: free Charlotte mason curriculum guide with book recommendations and sample schedules.

Tutoring:

Dyslexia Tutoring - Gayle Fowler 256-476-1460 Gayle has worked with Decatur City Schools for 27 years. She is a Certified Language Therapist and is licensed to teach students with dyslexia. She was trained through The Shelton School in Dallas, Texas. They use the Take Flight Curriculum published through the Scottish Rite Foundation. The approach is Orton Gillingham multisensory approach. She does not test students for dyslexia, but she does have a screener that she can give that shows the areas that are lacking.

Lori Matthews – tutors all subjects K-6. She uses an Orton-Gillingham based curriculum (Barton) for students with dyslexia. She tutors out of the Sommerville Library Mon-Wed. You can contact her at makingadifference.tutoring@gmail.com